Welcome to Greenville County Youth Orchestras!

Our Mission

Our mission is to impact the lives of young people through music by providing a quality orchestral program that develops and educates young musicians in the art of performance and enhances their personal musicianship. We strive to make our programs available to all qualifying students by offering a robust scholarship program to assist families in need with orchestra fees, summer studies, and private lessons.

What we do.

GCYO has six (6) honors level ensembles, each geared to a specific stage of development of the young orchestral musician. The program is designed such that a beginning level musician can start in the Prelude ensemble and, with talent, dedication, and practice, end their high school music career in our most advanced ensemble, the Young Artist Orchestra.

Our focus is education. Our conducting staff are gifted educators as well as performing musicians. Sectional rehearsals, led by area strings and wind educators, are an important part of the rehearsal process for all ensembles. Sectionals give our students instrument specific work on their orchestra's repertoire and the skills needed to be successful in the performance. In addition to sectional rehearsals, small group lessons are offered for musicians in our lower level orchestras. These lessons focus on skill development and offer an affordable lesson option for our families.

The GCYO Association

The GCYO Association is a not-for-profit corporation that partners with the Greenville County Schools (GCS) in providing this after-school orchestra program. GCS provides conductor and coach salaries as well as rehearsal facilities. The Association, with an annual budget over $100,000, administers the program and provides funding for administrative staff, all concert expenses including venue rental, programs, music rental and coaching staff. In addition, we budget a minimum of $10,000.00 each year for scholarship assistance for our students.

Parent Expectations

Becoming a musician is a journey. Young musicians need a team of family and professionals to get them on the road. You can expect GCYO to do our part as we provide quality instruction and musical opportunities for your musician. We expect you to support your students as they participate in GCYO in the following ways.

1. Support your musician in meeting the expectations we have set for them
2. Support GCYO financially by paying the participation fee (see fee schedule and explanation below)
3. Support GCYO financially by becoming a sustaining member if you are able (see membership form)
4. Support GCYO by volunteering your time!

2022-23 Annual Participation Fees:

- Young Artist Orchestra & Philharmonic: $250
- Sinfonia & Intermezzo: $125

Financial Aid Program: We understand that financial difficulties occur. Financial aid is awarded based on a family's financial need. If you need financial assistance, see guidelines on the following page.

GCYO Financial Aid and Scholarships

Raising Musicians: Financial Aid Awards

All students should have the opportunity to excel musically! The GCYO Board of Directors has established a scholarship fund to assist families with the high cost of raising a musician. Financial aid awards are made for private lessons, GCYO tuition fees, and summer music programs. Award is based on financial need, the student's participation in GCYO, and a teacher recommendation.

GCYO Fee Assistance:

We understand that financial difficulties occur. Financial aid is awarded based on a family's financial need. We expect all families, however, to "buy in" at some level. Please be prepared to pay a deposit of 10% of the student fee by the first rehearsal.

Complete our scholarship application found at <https://gcyo.net/request-for-fees> . Application must be completed by September 30 (February 6 for Spring only Prelude and Wind Symphony).

Financial Aid for Private Lessons:

This scholarship program is designed to ASSIST parents with the high cost of private lessons. Applicants must apply by September 30th and/or January 30th. Funds will be sent to the teacher or institution providing lessons. To apply for financial assistance for private lessons go to <https://gcyo.net/request-lesson-assistance/>

Financial Aid for Summer Studies:

Summer music camps and programs are an important part of a musician's advanced studies. They are also expensive! Application for summer studies assistance must be submitted by May 15th. These funds may also be used to cover private lessons over the summer. Funds will be sent directly to the camp or teacher.

To apply for financial assistance for a summer program go to <https://gcyo.net/summer-studies-assistance/>

Scholarship Auditions

The GCYO Association offers two merit-based scholarship opportunities for our musicians. Both scholarships are determined by live audition and will take place in the spring of each year. To be eligible to audition you must be in good standing with the orchestra you are currently in, have adhered to the attendance policy of GCYO, and have submitted your application by the published date. Auditioning students may not request an audition date other than that, nor can they submit a video or audio audition. For details and application check go to www.gcyo.net/students-and-parents/

Summer Studies Scholarships:

Summer Studies Scholarships are to be used for summer music programs or private lessons. This is open to all members of GCYO that are in good standing and are returning next year. There will be 2 – 4 scholarships awarded for each orchestra, amount to be determined by GCYO Board.

Senior Scholarship:

Graduating seniors who will be pursuing a music degree in college may apply for the Senior Scholarship. There will be one scholarship awarded, amount to be determined by the GCYO Board.

REHEARSAL PREPARATION

Rehearsal is not the time to practice your orchestra music. Rehearsal time will be used to work on style, intonation, expression, technique, tone, color, balance & blend, ensemble, unity of purpose, and other aspects of orchestral performance. As an orchestra member, you are expected to do the following:

- Practice EACH WEEK to incorporate what was rehearsed at the most recent rehearsal and develop your technique according to weekly instructions.
- Practice regularly with a metronome.
- There will be a part check/audition for each concert cycle. At the discretion of the staff, the part checks may or may not be used for seating.
- Philharmonic and YAO musicians: Obtain recordings of the works being rehearsed, listen to them, following and becoming familiar with individual parts in context of the work.
- Philharmonic and YAO musicians: Read your conductors weekly rehearsal notes and listen to rehearsal recordings

REHEARSAL ATTENDANCE POLICY

You will be given a schedule of rehearsals and their locations for the year. In addition, you can always find the schedule on our website www.gcyo.net/students-and-parents under the calendar tab.

- 1) You (the orchestra member) are expected to attend ALL rehearsals in a given season. But:
- 2) You are allowed a total of five (5) excused absences for the year, and no more than three (3) excused absences per semester.
- 3) Acceptable reasons for missing a rehearsal:
 - i) You must perform in a scheduled school concert
 - ii) You must participate in an event that is a fixed part of your religious calendar
 - iii) You are seriously ill (fever over 100)
 - iv) You have any COVID-19 Symptoms or have been quarantined for any reason
 - v) Death of a family member
- 4) All student absences must be reported by filling out the online absence form found www.gcyo.net/absence-request-form/.
- 5) If missing rehearsals becomes an issue between you and GCYO, it will show that you lack the necessary commitment to be a good member and a conference will be held with the director, coaches, parent and student to determine the consequences.
- 6) Having too much homework is not considered a valid excuse for missing a rehearsal. In committing to the orchestra, you agree to plan with regard to academic responsibilities. When you are absent, it is impossible to make up the work, and your absence impacts the entire ensemble.
- 7) You are not permitted to miss dress rehearsals or concerts. These final rehearsals are geared toward pulling the elements of the orchestra together for the performance, and you are needed to accomplish this. You will be asked to sit backstage and not play in the concert if you have missed the dress rehearsal.

For each rehearsal:

- ✓ Arrive no later than 10 minutes before the start of any rehearsal. (In the music world, being on time is LATE. Being early is ON TIME!)
- ✓ Bring your instrument, in good repair and ready to play.
- ✓ Bring YOUR music.
- ✓ Bring a pencil.
